We hope to obtain the most complete picture of your ability and preparation. Please complete the requirements below, sign and return this form to our office.

Please send official transcripts from any high school(s) you have attended.

A phone or personal interview with a member of the admission staff is required. Please call the Office of Admission to schedule the interview.

If not already provided under separate cover, please attach a portfolio that includes the following:

- ▶ A transcript for courses taken each year—this can be either a formal document from a correspondence school or agency or a self-designed portfolio which includes syllabi and reading lists;
- ▶ A progress report or evaluations of coursework;
- ▶ A recent example of a short research or analytical paper that contains the evaluator's remarks;
- ▶ A reference from someone other than the applicant's parent(s).

Students are also strongly encouraged to submit:

- ▶ Two SAT II exam results;
- ▶ A brief statement about the decision to home-school.
