

Registration Form: Art and Life in America

Registration for the symposium, lunch, and tea will be accepted by mail, on a first-come, first-served basis, until October 1, 1999. Seating is limited, and we encourage early registration. After October 1, registrations for the presentations at Wright Hall will be accepted as space permits. We regret that we are not able to accept registrations after October 1 for the lunch buffet or the afternoon tea. Photocopies of this registration form may be used. Registration forms are also available on-line at www.smith.edu/artmuseum.

Please complete and mail your registration form to:

Smith College Museum of Art
 Art and Life in America Symposium
 Elm Street at Bedford Terrace
 Northampton, MA 01063

If making lunch and/or tea reservations, please include with your registration form a check made payable to the Smith College Museum of Art for the appropriate amount. Fees for lunch and tea are non-refundable and must be received by October 1, 1999. Tickets will be held at Wright Hall.

Please note that Wright Hall, the Smith College Museum of Art, and the College Club are wheelchair accessible. The Manse, which is a private residence, is not wheelchair accessible.
