

JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS

THE JEWISH ORGANIZING INITIATIVE (JOI) in Boston, Fellowship

Website: www.jewishorganizing.org

Contact: 99 Chauncy St, Suite 600, Boston, MA 02111, 617-350-9994, (fax) 617-350-9995; joi@jewishorganizing.org

Description: The Jewish Organizing Initiative is in search of Jews between the ages of 21-30 that are considering or already pursuing a career in social justice, community, or labor organizing for an intensive year of work as an organizer in a secular social justice organization and training in organizing skills and Jewish tradition.

INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH LEADERSHIP AND VALUES, Fellowship Program

Website: www.panim.org/centers/fellowship.html

Contact: PANIM, 6163 Executive Blvd, Rockville, MD 20852, 301-770-5070, fax: 301-770-6365, info@panim.org

Deadline: April

Description: Yearlong paid Fellows provide ongoing support to our seminars, research & write about current policy issues, develop & implement educational programs, coordinate participation in a national day of Jewish service, support & staff summer programs, etc. The Fellowship provides a solid background for anyone interested in a career in the Jewish community as a Jewish educator, in Jewish communal service, the rabbinate, or for anyone with an interest in long-term lay involvement in the Jewish community.

HILLEL, Hillel's Schusterman International Center Fellowship

Website: www.hillel.org/careers/fellowships/default

Deadline: February

Description: Hillel offers one-year fellowships for outstanding recent college graduates at Hillel's Schusterman International Center in Washington, DC. Fellows gain an opportunity to affect many aspects of Jewish campus life while receiving an in-depth professional and learning experience supervised by senior staff.

JOSHUA VENTURE, Fellowship

Website: www.joshuaventure.net

Contact: info@joshuaventure.net

Description: The Joshua Venture Fellowship is a national program that supports and trains emerging Jewish social entrepreneurs, ages 21–36, who are developing innovative nonprofit initiatives that contribute to a just, inclusive, and vibrant Jewish community. The two-year fellowship provides seed capital, intensive entrepreneurial training, funding for self-directed learning, mentorship, and technical assistance. Fellows attend retreats, regional meetings, and communicate via an online learning community.

NEW ISRAEL FUND, Social Justice Fellowships

Website: www.nif.org/programs-and-partners/

Contact: fellowships@nif.org, (202) 513-7870

Deadline: February

Description: A partnership of North Americans, Israelis, and Europeans dedicated to promoting social justice, coexistence, and pluralism in Israel. 10-month fellowships with stipend in Israel, each at an organization working to advance social justice and democracy. Each Fellowship will concentrate in one of the following areas: working to safeguard civil and human rights, pursuing environmental justice, promoting Jewish-Arab equality, advancing the status of women, fostering tolerance and religious pluralism, or bridging social and economic gaps. The SJF Fellow will intern 32 hours a week at an Israeli non-profit organization.

JDC JEWISH SERVICE CORPS

Website: www.jdc.org/how_volunteer.html

Contact: volunteer@jdc.org, American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Attn: JDC Jewish Service Corps
711 Third Avenue, 10th Floor, New York, NY 10017

Deadline: February preferred, all year long

Description: The JDC Jewish Service Corps (JSC) is a unique one-year volunteer opportunity for active, enthusiastic, knowledgeable Jews to serve, and take part in the life of a Jewish community overseas. Volunteers should have a strong Jewish background and a passion for transmitting it to others. We are looking for college graduates who are adventurous, self-confident and energetic, gentle change agents, open-minded individuals looking for personal challenges and growth. In some placements the emphasis will be on social welfare services, but every case depends on the needs of the community.