

Barbara Leiner, L.C.S.W.C. – Walter Reed Army Medical Center

Ms. Barbara Leiner, M.S.W., LCSW-C, is a psychiatric social worker on the faculty of the Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C. She is an academic instructor and clinical supervisor for all levels of psychiatric and social work trainees. Ms. Leiner treats children of active duty, deployed, injured, and retired service members using a variety of therapeutic modalities and interventions. Ms. Leiner coauthored a chapter on the effects of deployment on families for a military psychiatry textbook. She writes and has lectured nationally and internationally to military and civilian healthcare providers on the subject of intergenerational transmission of trauma.