

HISTORY MAJOR

NAME:

DATE:

For all classes, please list dept, course # and title. For those classes you plan to take, please note projected semester.

11 Semester courses / 6 which should be taken at Smith

1. 5 courses in a FIELD OF CONCENTRATION, incl. one seminar:
(Only TWO courses may be historically oriented courses at the 200-level or above in another discipline approved by advisor)

1.

2.

3.

4.

5. Seminar:

Concentration (can be geographic, chronological, methodological, or thematic):

2. 6 courses IN ADDITION (four must be in two fields distinct from concentration)

Four distinct from concentration:

1.

2.

3.

4.

Two additional:

5.

6.

GEOGRAPHIC BREADTH: Among the 11 courses counting towards the major, there must be at least one course each in three of the following geographical regions (Africa, East and Central Asia, Europe, Latin America, Middle East and South Asia, North America) – AP credits cannot be used to satisfy this requirement.

1.

2.

3.

No more than 2 courses taken at the 100-level can count toward the major
One AP exam in history with grade of 4 or 5 can count toward major