

SMITH COLLEGE
JANUARY 2010 INTERTERM COURSE PROPOSAL FORM

*Submit 3 copies of this form and all supporting material to the Interterm Committee, College Hall 203.
Provide ALL the information requested.*

Name: _____ Date: _____

Smith ID# _____ Telephone: _____ e-mail: _____

Check one: Smith student : Campus Box #: _____
Address during winter break: _____

Staff/faculty: Campus mailing Address: _____

Not Smith affiliated: Mailing address: _____

Title of proposed course (should not exceed 10 words):

Dates of proposed course. Mark "1" next to week most preferable, and "2" next to an alternative week. If your course carries over into another week, mark the first week with 1a and the second week with 1b. Note: The College is closed on January 18 in observance of Martin Luther King's birthday, and there are no classes.

Classes begin the second week of the Interterm period:

- Week One: January 11-15
- Week Two: January 19-22 (4-day week)
- No preference (give me either week)

Total number of days course is offered _____

Times of proposed course. For scheduling purposes, try to offer your course at the same time for each day of the week. Mark "1" next to the most preferable time and "2" next to an alternative time.

- 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Other _____
- 3:15 – 5:15 p.m. No preference (give me any time slot)

Maximum number of students you can accommodate in class _____

Estimated cost per student (photocopying, art supplies, etc.). Be specific. Itemize your costs. E.g., how many pages of photocopying per student.

Type of space needed for the class (i.e. seminar room, dance studio): _____

Equipment needed (overhead projector, VCR, monitor, floor mats, CD player, etc.):

Attach this application to your course proposal, brief course description and personal statement (see instructions) and submit three copies of everything to Interterm Program, College Hall 203. Proposals are due by 4 p.m., October 12.

Questions/advice about how to write your proposal? Contact Sue Briggs, sbriggs@smith.edu, Ext. 4903.

