

Woolf in the Real World: Selected Papers from the Thirteenth International Conference on Virginia Woolf

Edited by Karen V. Kukil

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY
DIGITAL PRESS

WOOLF

IN THE REAL WORLD

Selected Papers from the Thirteenth International Conference on Virginia Woolf

Edited by Karen V. Kukil

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY DIGITAL PRESS

ISBN 0-9771263-2-3 Copyright 2005, Clemson University

The Thirteenth International Conference on Virginia Woolf took place at Smith College, a women's college in Northampton, Massachusetts, on 5-8 June 2003. Nearly 200 papers focused on the ways Woolf engaged the "real world" of her time and the ways her legacy continues to engage "real world" issues now. Thirty essays were selected for publication that reflect the life, writings, and afterlife of Virginia Woolf. In addition to the remarks of plenary speakers Carol T. Christ, Lyndall Gordon, Carolyn Heilbrun, and Frances Spalding, the selected papers include essays by Michèle Barrett, Susan C. Bourque, Julia Briggs, Maggie Humm, Dianne Hunter, Eleanor McNeese, Kathryn Simpson, and Elizabeth Gallaher von Klemperer, among other distinguished Woolf scholars.

ORDER FORM (Make checks payable, in $U.S., to "Clemson University" and send with form to: Director, Center for Electronic and Digital Publishing, 611 Strode Tower, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634-0522, U.S.A.)

Quantity: _____ x $19.95
 Subtotal: _____
 Shipping: _____ ($2 x Quantity)
 Total: _____

Name: _____
 Address: _____

 Country: _____
 Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____