

Why choose Arab Academy for Arabic study abroad?

- Experience the Arab world in Cairo, Egypt
- Many opportunities to practice speaking in small classes
- Cultural excursions integrated into curriculum
- Courses in Modern Standard Arabic and Egyptian Arabic
- Free orientation and help with accommodations & arrivals

Anyone serious about learning Arabic would be better off spending 3 months here than 2 years at university classes.
*Karen Arnold,
Cambridge University*

 Study in the Heart of the Middle East: Arab Academy is in Garden City, in central Cairo, at the crossroads of civilizations. You will experience pharaonic, Coptic, Islamic and modern cultures during and outside class.

 Speak Arabic in Real Situations: Our programs in MSA and Egyptian Arabic help you to develop functional fluency through cultural outings with teachers that give you the opportunity to speak Arabic in real situations.

 Find a Home Away from Home: Arab Academy has a family atmosphere. Our friendly staff offer a free orientation to help you settle into living in Cairo, assistance in finding housing in flats or hotels, and airport transfers.

 Improve Your Arabic Skills Quickly: Free placement test ensures you are in classes suitable to your level. You only spend time learning what you don't already know. Only Arabic is spoken for maximum exposure.

 Access Our Online Materials for Free: We were the first institution in the world to offer online courses in Arabic. You will access these interactive materials during your stay and for one month after departure.

Program Dates and Prices:

Session 1: June 3-30, 2011, Session 2: July 1-28, 2011 or sign up for both. Only $995 per session for 80 hours of classes plus 7 cultural outings with teachers.

To learn more about our summer, academic semester/year and monthly programs, visit:
<http://www.arabicincairo.com>

