In old Northampton small and proud, we attend a college well endowed.

Balancing class and sports and clubs and choir, The women of Smith are much admired.

Within our ancient ivied halls, Smith women show they've got some poise.

Though other schools boast lots of men, Smith Rugby could beat all of them.

Other schools boast lots of men, Smith Rugby could beat all of them.
Welles-ley wom-en think they're grand
Mount Hol-y-oke thinks they were found-ed first, but So-phi-a built our col-lege while they went to church.
At Smith we know we're num-ber one. Our Al- ma Ma-ter's sec-ond to none. And you should know we'll

But on Fri-days they're off to Har vard land.
