Whether we are welcoming you for the first time or welcoming you back, we’re so glad that you’re here! First Week At Smith is a series of free programs sponsored by the Office of Student Engagement in collaboration with other offices, departments and student organizations across campus and The Northampton Chamber of Commerce and is aimed at connecting new students and reconnection returning Smithies to our community. Programs are fun, informative, and can help you find your place, make new friends and connect to campus and area resources. Attend one or attend them all – the choice is yours! All on-campus programs will be in the CC TV Lounge, Lower Level in the event of rain.
