

Buddhist Philosophy Distinguished Lecture Series

Thursday, September 28

To Publish or Perish:

Nāgārjuna in Context

Joseph Walser

Department of Religion
Tufts University

Thursday, October 19

The Case of the

Indecisive Bodhisattva:

Using Śāntideva as a

Guide to Practical

Ethical Reasoning

Richard Hayes

Department of Philosophy
University of New Mexico

Thursday, December 7

Killing with Compassion

in the Indian Buddhist

Tantric Literature

Steve Jenkins

Department of Religious Studies,
California State University at Humboldt

All events take place at 4:30 p.m. in the

Neilson Browsing Room

SMITH COLLEGE

Sponsored by the Ada Howe Kent Fund, Smith College Department of Philosophy, Five College Buddhist Studies Program, Five College Tibetan Studies in India Program, Amherst College Department of Religion and the Smith College Lecture Committee

Photo of East Gate of the Stupa – Sanchi by Jay L. Garfield