Upcoming Events: March 2016

For information on Easter Services, go to http://www.smith.edu/religiouslife/images/flyers/2016/spring/easter-services.jpg

Multifaith Forum
Wednesday, March 30th
8:30 AM
CC 103-104
A "Faith in Action" forum for students, faculty, staff and community members run by the CRSL and its community partners. The goal of this forum is to exchange ideas and work together to address social issues. Breakfast will be served. RSVP to mcantwel@smith.edu.

Interfaith Works
Thursday, March 24th
5:30 PM—7:30 PM
Bodman Lounge, Chapel
Join fellow students, local clergy and the staff of Cathedral in the Night for an evening of cooking and service. Dinner is included!

Purim Party
Thursday, March 24th
9:00 PM
Kosher Kitchen
Come and celebrate Purim with the Smith College Jewish community. This year’s theme is “Purim in drag,” but you can wear whatever you like. For more information, visit us on Facebook.

Candle Light Labyrinth
Friday, March 25th
10:00 PM
Chapel Sanctuary
The labyrinth is an archetype found in many religions. It has only one path so there are no tricks to it or dead ends. The path winds around and becomes a mirror for where we are in our lives. Led by Dean Jennifer Walters.

Religion and Diplomacy
Tuesday, March 29th
5:00 PM
Seelye 106
The Religion Department is honored to host Shaun Casey, U.S. Special Representative for Religion and Global Affairs and head of the Office of Religion and Global Affairs at the U.S. State Department. He will be delivering a talk about religion and diplomacy. Dinner will be served at 6:30 PM, where students can dine and interact with Casey. Please RSVP to srel@smith.edu.

My Islam: An Exploration of Identity
Wednesday, March 30th
7:00 PM
CC 103-104
"My Islam" is an open mic event for Muslim students and students racialized as Muslim. Refreshments included. For any Muslim students who wants to speak, be featured in the photo exhibition or display art, E-mail nshahmed@smith.edu or ejahangir@smith.edu. All are welcome to attend.