

OL/First Year Experience Assistant

The Office of Student Affairs has a great leadership opportunity available for next fall. If you:

- Are hard working
- Are interested in helping new Smithies as they join the Smith community
- Are looking to develop your skills as a leader
- Have a high energy level and a sense of humor
- Are open minded and have good listening skills
- Are in good academic and social standing

Then you should apply to be a First Year Experience (FYE) Assistant. This position combines what formerly was the Orientation Leader position with some additional opportunities to work with new students throughout their first semester. You will:

- Help plan the Fall 2009 Orientation program
- Be a key facilitator of the Fall 2009 Orientation program
- Help to plan and facilitate workshops and activities for new students throughout the fall semester

Attendance at the session is not required to apply for the FYE Assistant position. Application materials can also be obtained on the Student Affairs website at <http://www.smith.edu/sao/sla.php> on or before April 19, 2009.
