         i. Basic introduction to the RAD program
         ii. Teach simple strikes, knee strikes, how to escape when someone grabs you from the front iii. Ground defense
      j. RAD class is currently going on right now (two more classes) - will do another one in the Spring
i. If there is enough demand, they will do another one before the December break

k. There was a huge issue with laptop theft last year
   i. Eleven were stolen in 2011
   ii. Some of these were Smith students - they were caught and charged iii. Other thefts were boyfriends, girlfriends, other college students iv. One of the prime locations for laptop theft is in the library - when you go to lunch or the bathroom
   v. They have secret ways of uncovering stolen laptops vi. Mac Laptops have an application that says: find my Mac!
   vii. Another app, Prey, takes photos of the robber as they are running away
       1. tracks GPS location

l. High rate of bike theft on campus
   i. Remember to lock up the bikes to something that cannot move ii. Scroll the numbers if you have a combination lock iii. There is also a bike safety day in the Spring iv. Cushing house is the worst for not locking up their bikes - lock them up!
   v. Students should take advantage of the Bike Kitchen at Smith vi. For $25 a semester, you get a bike, a helmet and a lock vii. Located at the lower part of Talbot House viii. For more information, go here: http://sophia.smith.edu/bikekitchen/Bike_Kitchen_Site/index.html
   ix. Check craigslist.com if your bike is stolen - many thieves attempt to sell them online!
   x. The thief will sometimes change parts of the bike, like the handlebars, so check carefully

m. Engraving process
   i. Campus police can engrave laptops, phones, bikes etc. so that they are easily identifiable if stolen ii. Makes thieves more hesitant to steal an engraved laptop - not as easy to sell iii. Remember to have serial numbers for stolen items, the campus police can run the serial numbers if they come across a group of laptops

n. The campus police are police officers for the State of Massachusetts
   i. They have authority to arrest, prosecute, serve warrants etc.
   ii. Their jurisdiction is on campus
   iii. They have gone through highly intense training process at the State Police Academy to become campus police - same training that the state police get, it is condensed into 16 weeks (624 hours of training)

o. Their main concern with alcohol intoxication is safety - they do not worry about age at that time, they just want to ensure that these students are safe
   i. Always contact the campus police when there is a problem with alcohol - do not face the consequences of what will happen if you do not
ii. Even if you try drugs, or you believe you were spiked, call the campus police to have them check up on you - because of the Amnesty policy, they will not get you in trouble, they just need to make sure you are safe

3. Questions
   a. When is Smith having their golf cart event on campus?
      i. Waiting for approval
   b. Are you allowed to persecute these offenders?
      i. The campus police are willing to do what the students want (i.e. if they find a student laptop, the victim can choose what route to go for punishment)
      ii. The campus route for stealing is much harsher than the courts, but it is up to the students
   c. So you don't tell the victim who the thief is?
      i. The campus police protects the safety of all students involved, but sometimes the thieves will reach out to the victims and apologize ii. They have gone to court many times on cases iii. The judge is very lenient towards Smith College students
   d. So the deans know?
      i. Yes, the deans are informed about the situation
      ii. These cases can also go to the Judicial Board
   e. Have you had to arrest people for fighting? Are there violent crimes on campus?
      i. Students do get arrested ii. They are police and have certain rules they must follow iii. Victims can decide what route to follow unless the injuries reach a certain degree (physical violence)
      iv. There are different levels of arrest
      v. They take domestic violence really seriously - they have gone through a specialty training vi. The campus police go can go through many specialty training programs
   f. Can you talk about rides late at night on campus, or transports to hospitals?
      i. They do transports to health services, or hospitals ii. They do fingerprints if you need to get these done for a job iii. They will jump start cars iv. They will do safety escorts from building to building if you do not feel safe
   g. Do the campus police do escorted walks from downtown Northampton to Smith?
      i. The cars stay on campus, but the campus police will meet students on the perimeter
   h. How does the well-being check work?
      i. There are many reasons for these checks ii. The campus police will go to the student’s room and check to make sure they are safe iii. Often parents have campus police do well-being checks when they get worried
i. In terms of the safety escort, do you escort intoxicated students home if friends are worried about their safety?
   i. Yes - they will want to assess the situation, find out what they drank, when their last drink was students will not be in trouble for drinking
j. What qualifies calling campus police for suspicious people on campus?
   i. Anything that makes students feel uncomfortable on campus justifies making a complaint to campus police ii. Try to get as much information about the person as possible before making the call
k. Can you comment on the blue light system?
   i. The blue lights are located around campus ii. Push the emergency button on the callbox to talk to campus police iii. If you are being chased, hit the callbox, then run to the next one and hit that callbox - leave a trail
l. Can you text campus police?
   i. As of now, no.
   ii. If you are in your room, get your dorm phone off the hook for many seconds - it will do an emergency call to campus police iii. They can get an immediate location for you iv. Campus police dispatch can hear everything through the phone
   v. Can also be used for medical emergencies
m. What is the number you call from campus landlines?
   i. x800
n. If you get stuck on another campus, is there anything campus police can do to help?
   i. They have picked students up in the past, because they do work for the other colleges. They can do a relay if they are not busy and staffing allows for it.
o. Can you talk a little bit about the approachability of campus police?
   i. They are all very approachable, even if they can look quite imposing
