

Lieutenant Colonel Claudia Mackie, Ph.D. – West Point

Lieutenant Colonel Claudia Mackie currently works as the Chief of Behavioral Health, Keller Army Community Hospital at West Point, New York. She has served on Active Duty as an Army Social Work Officer for the past 20 years. Throughout her career as a clinical social worker she has worked with soldiers experiencing posttraumatic stress. In 2005, Lieutenant Colonel Mackie deployed to Iraq with the 98th Combat Stress Control Detachment and provided mental health services to deployed soldiers. She has also worked extensively with the family members of deployed soldiers and with the family members of soldiers experiencing posttraumatic stress disorder. Lieutenant Colonel Mackie is a graduate of The Catholic University of America's School of Social Services doctoral program.