

Sebrina Posey – Manchester VA Medical Center

Sebrina Posey was born and raised in Tampa, Florida. She attended the University of South Florida for her BSW (1988). She interned and was hired by a community mental health agency, Project Return, from 1988-1990. She attended Florida State University, in Tallahassee for her MSW in 1991. She interned and was hired by the Tampa Veterans Hospital, where she spent 16 years working in the field of social work. Her jobs included: Primary Care Team Social worker, Women's Center Social Worker/Therapist, Inpatient Psych primary therapist, Renal Dialysis Social Work Coordinator, Team Leader for Inpatient Surgery, and Polytrauma Inpatient Case manager. During those years she also served as the graduate student program coordinator for 9 years, and EAP counselor, member of multiple hospital committees, and Master trainer for the CARE program. She relocated to New Hampshire one year ago, and became the Manchester VAMC Suicide Prevention Coordinator. During the past year, she has become established as a member for the State Suicide Prevention Council and the New Hampshire National Guard Suicide Prevention committee member. She has offered many community based trainings for Suicide Prevention, and is willing to be available to the community for any identified needs.