

Roger Miller Dissertation Grant
Recipients and Titles

1996	Jennifer Tolleson, PhD'96	“The Transformative Power of Violence: The Role of Gang Life in Relation to Chronic Traumatic Stress among Urban Adolescent Males”
1997	Marian Harris, PhD'97	“Factors that Affect Family Reunification of African American Birth Mothers and their Children Placed in Kinship Care”
1998	AnnMarie Glodich, PhD'99	“Psychoeducational Groups for Traumatized Adolescents: Assessing the Effectiveness of Increasing Knowledge of Trauma to Avert Re-enactment and Risk-Taking Behaviors”
1999	Susanne Bennett, PhD'2001	“Two Mothers and Their Child: A Multi-method Study of Parenting Bonds and Division of Labor within Lesbian Adoptive Families”
2000		No applicants; no award given
2001		No applicants; no award given
2002	Brian Beech, PhD'03	“Explorative and Comparative Study of Juvenile Fire Starters”
2003	Sherri Ettinger, PhD'04	“Meeting the Mental Health Needs of Female Students of Color on Two College Campuses: A Multi-Method Study”
2004	William Etnyre, PhD'05	“Growing Up (Gay) is Hard to do”
2005	Ellen Smith, PhD'06	“Trauma and Illness: The Experiences of Women Living with HIV/AIDS”
2006	Eunjung Lee	“Task Analysis: Role of the Cross-Cultural Competence of a Therapist as a Mediation of Alliance Rupture in Cross-Cultural Therapy Process”
2007		No applicants, no award given