Participants and parent(s) or legal guardian(s) should review and understand the following rules and regulations and agree to the following conditions of participation. Possible sanctions for the violations of one or more of these rules includes, but are not limited to, suspension or expulsion from the program.

1. Participant understands that the Summer Precollege Program at Smith is a two to four-week residential program and agrees to participate for the full duration of the program. She will not take time out for other planned activities. The Summer Programs Director may grant exceptions if requested in advance and in writing, by a parent or guardian.

2. There is a strict no-visitor policy.

3. Participants are not allowed to bring vehicles or to drive or ride in any vehicle during the summer program that is not a Smith College Vehicle.

4. Unsuitable conduct that may result in the violation of one or more of these sanctions includes, but is not limited to the following:
   - Failure to attend daily field, or classroom instruction;
   - Disorderly conduct;
   - Refusal to comply with any program rule regarding housing including 10 p.m. curfew, quiet hours, and with the regulation that participants leave the Smith campus grounds only when accompanied by a fellow program participant, parent or guardian and having fully informed the Residential Director;
   - Any action which is committed with disregard to possible harm to self or others, or which results in an injury;
   - Use, possession, or delivery of any alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, firearms or other weapons, illegal drugs, and/or illegal substances.

If the Summer Programs Director is informed that a participant’s conduct is in violation of a program rule or regulation, the participant will have an opportunity to explain and discuss fully the alleged misconduct with the Director. This discussion will take place prior to the Director's final determination that the misconduct has occurred and warrants the imposition of sanctions. In all instances, the Director's final determination regarding any violation of the rules and regulations, and the imposition of sanctions, shall be conclusive and binding.

In the event of the expulsion of a program participant, every reasonable effort will be made to notify the participant's parent(s) or guardian(s) prior to removal from the residence hall. If the participant's parent(s) or guardian(s) cannot be contacted prior to her removal, alternative living arrangements, in which the participant will be under the supervision of a responsible adult, will be made until the parent(s) or guardian(s) is notified. The participant and her parent(s) or guardian(s) further agree that upon a participant's expulsion they will not be entitled to a refund of any monies paid, and must cover expenses for early departure. We hereby agree to the above conditions of participation in the Summer Precollege Programs at Smith College.

Student Signature: ________________________________ Date: __________, 2016 Parent/Guardian Signature: ________________________________ Date: __________, 2016 Print Student Name: ________________________________