A lecture by Carol Maier, Kent State University, OH

Monday, March 28th, Smith College, Seelye Hall 106, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Carol Maier is Professor Emerita of Spanish and Translation Studies at Kent State University, where she is affiliated with the Institute for Applied Linguistics. She has translated work by Nuria Amat, Octavio Armand, Rosa Chacel, Nivaria Tejera, Severo Sarduy, and María Zambrano. Her most recent publication is Confession in Two Confessions, which also includes a translation of María Zambrano’s Confession, translated by Noël Valis.