Notes about prizes

- All winning teams and prize amounts are solely determined by the Competition Judges.
- Prize money will be disbursed in accordance with Smith College policies and will be subject to state and federal taxes. All prizewinners will need to complete and return appropriate tax documents provided by the Smith College Controller's Office in order to receive funds. Graduate student and non-student venture members are not eligible to receive any prizes.
- All scholarships to The Draper University of Heroes will be arranged directly with Draper University. The Draper campus boarding program only admits students ages 18–28. Eligible Team Members outside of this age range do not qualify for Draper University campus boarding scholarships.
DISCLAIMERS

- The Competition Organizers reserve the right to disqualify any entry/team at any time that, in their judgment, violates the letter or spirit of the Competition.

- Smith College and the Competition Organizers assume no responsibility to ensure the confidentiality of any information disclosed by teams before, during, or after the competition.

- Applications submitted to the Competition are considered PUBLIC. The documents may be shared with Judges, advisors, future students, posted on websites, used for marketing purposes, etc. Participating teams should therefore ensure that their documentation does not contain secret or proprietary information.

- Participants agree to be photographed and recorded and allow Smith College free use of these images as well as a summary description of all executive summaries.

- All decisions regarding the competition rules, procedures, and processes are at the sole discretion of the Competition organizers.

- The selection of the teams to compete on Competition Day and the selection of the winners are at the sole discretion of the Judges and the Competition Organizers.

DISQUALIFICATION

- Any team deemed to be using students from Smith College or one of the other colleges or universities primarily as a means to participate in the competition will be disqualified.

- Any team deemed to be using female students primarily as a means to participate in the competition will be disqualified.

- Any team who intentionally initiates contact with any Judge prior to Competition Day will be automatically disqualified from the competition.
