Nancy “Penny” Schwartz Fund for the Study of non-Western Languages

Application

Requests for 2014 should be submitted electronically to the department’s administrative assistant, Lea Ahlen (lahlen@smith.edu), no later than March 7, 2014.

Applicants must include specific information on the study program and the language to be studied, as well as a clear statement of the importance of the language to the student’s anthropological interests. Any additional sources of funding to which applications have been made must be identified. Seniors planning to study a non-Western language after graduation are not eligible for this grant.

Personal Information

Name:

Email:

Graduation year and semester:

Language Program Information

Program Name
Address
Dates of planned attendance
Program description (include courses you plan to take)

Statement of the importance and relevance of the language to the student’s anthropological interests

Explain how this program contributes to your anthropological studies and interests.

Additional Funding Sources

List additional sources of funding to which you have applied or received for the language program