CEEDS is located in Wright Hall on the Smith College Campus (#8). It is easily accessed from Main/Elm Street, by walking into the Campus Center (#15) and out the rear door. Make a right and skirt Chapin Lawn. The entrance to Wright Hall is on the right. It is the building with a large owl sculpture in front of it. There are white wings painted on the glass above the front doors. Upon entering, walk down the stairs in front of you and make a right. Walk down the hall. CEEDS is located on the left.

If you are driving, Wright Hall is also easily accessible from Green Street. Simply park in a lot on Green Street or in the parking garage off West Street and walk on one of the paths that winds around Neilson Library (#7). If coming in the rear door of Wright Hall, CEEDS will be on your immediate right.
