Grace Fong
The Meaning of Daughterly Filiality at the End of Empire
The Life and Poetry of Chen Yun

Grace Fong is Professor of Chinese Literature in the Department of East Asian Studies, McGill University, and directs the Ming Qing Women's Writings digital archive and database project. She has published extensively on classical Chinese poetry, women’s writing and autobiography. In this lecture, Fong will discuss the life and writings of Chen Yun (1885–1911) and her relationship to her mother, the vanguard woman reformer Xue Shaohui.
