| 4. Selection Criteria | Phil Knight: “We’re seeking Scholars who can out-think, out-work, and out-care others.” In 2019 Knight-Hennessy aims to select 75 scholars and from 2020 up to 100 scholars per year. The program is looking for independent thinking, purposeful leadership, and a civic mindset. Share this advice for letter writers with the individuals who will provide you a reference for this program. | Selection criteria
Note that finalists (probably ~150 of applicants) will be invited to visit Stanford (at the program’s expense) for an Immersion Weekend Feb. 9-10, 2019. |
| 5. Smith Role | Applicants are required to have two letters of recommendation from writers who know you well and are in a position to assess your leadership experience and potential. Smith offers an optional endorsement letter to applicants who are or were Smith undergraduates. The endorsement process adds value to your application if Dr. Lamb and other mentors or advisors know your plans well. Therefore, an early start to Knight-Hennessy advising is essential. | See “Two recommendation letters” section of https://knight-hennessy.stanford.edu/admission/application-requirements |
| 6. Fun fact(s) | The first cohort (2018) of 49 students includes 57% women, 12% first generation college students (23% of those selected from the US), 67% of doctoral students in engineering, 63% non-US passport holders. | Inaugural cohort press release
