‘My So-Called Enemy’

An award-winning documentary featuring young Jewish, Christian and Muslim women that presents the Israeli-Palestinian conflict through a human lens—and the possibility and hope that come from listening to each other’s stories.

Q&A with the Director

Lisa Gossels

Emmy-winning filmmaker Lisa Gossels is a member of the Selah Leadership Network, the first leadership training designed specifically for Jewish leaders working across social change fields.

Monday, March 31
Seelye Hall 201 · 5 p.m.