Thank you for accompanying your group today.
We hope you enjoy your visit and appreciate your help in maintaining a quiet orderly atmosphere.
The Botanic Garden is a living plant museum. Out of respect for the collections and for everyone’s safety please familiarize your group with and abide by the following:

• Botanic Garden Rules and Safety:
  - No running anywhere in the building or outside garden areas
  - No food or drink in the greenhouses
  - Do not touch the plants in the conservatory
  - View and enjoy, but do not pick anything
  - Use caution on wet walkways and watch out for hoses
  - Do not touch exhibit panels

• Chaperones must stay with students at all times.
  - This applies to groups of all ages, including high-school students.

• Quiet Please!
  - Administrative offices and Reception Area are staff work spaces.

• Silence cell phones.

• Please be respectful of the tour guides.
  - They are volunteering their time today. Please refrain from talking, texting, photographing, etc. while they are speaking.

• Please be considerate of other visitors in the garden.

  Thank You!
