2013  Kennedy Professor in Renaissance Studies

Lecture Series

Torrance Kirby
2013–2014 Ruth and Clarence Kennedy Professor in Renaissance Studies
Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Director of the Centre for Research on Religion at McGill University, Montreal. He is a life member of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge and a member of the Princeton Centre of Theological Inquiry since 1996.

Paul’s Cross and the Culture of Persuasion: Tudor Origins of the Early-Modern Public Sphere
Tuesday, October 8, 5 p.m.

Public Conversion: Erasmian Reform and Richard Smyth’s “Retraction” at Paul’s Cross, 1547
Tuesday, October 29, 5 p.m.

Politics and Hermeneutics: John Jewel’s “Great Challenge,” 1559
Tuesday, November 12, 5 p.m.

Graham Auditorium/Hillyer Hall, Brown Fine Arts Center

This series hosted by the Smith College Department of Religion and made possible by the Ruth and Clarence Kennedy Endowment for Renaissance Studies.