

SMITH COLLEGE.

Family Weekend
SCHEDULE

2025

Smith College is excited to welcome parents and families to campus this fall. Please note that students are welcome at all events, even if their family is not able to join them. Review the “Smith Family” section at the end of this schedule for details about events held exclusively for students during Family Weekend.

Friday, October 31

8 a.m.—5:30 p.m.

Open Classes

Various Locations—List available at the Campus Center, Room 103/104

A complete listing of open classes will be available in the hospitality suite. Check the listing; some classes are not open because of limited seating, a guest speaker, a quiz, or the like.

9 a.m.—4:30 p.m.

Family Weekend Hospitality Suite

Campus Center, Room 103/104

Join us for morning refreshments, receive information about the schedule and see a list of open classes, and find out about the weekend, Smith, and the local area.

10–11 a.m.

The Botanic Garden of Smith College Tour
Meet at Lanning Fountain, just north of Burton lawn (Rain location: McConnell Hall, Room 103)

Take a tour of Smith’s world class botanic garden with its director and learn about exceptional garden spaces, trees, and how we are involving today’s students in groundbreaking conservation work.

11 a.m.—5 p.m.

Official Smith Ring Sales

Campus Center, Main Level, Table 1

The Smith ring, designed by students, is a symbol of the continuous link with classmates, friends, and the college. The ring also evokes special and shared memories of Smith days. Sponsored by Smith’s Alumnae Association, the ring is reserved exclusively for sophomores, juniors, seniors, and Ada Comstock Scholars in good standing. The design remains unchanged—a tangible connection to the past and the future.

11:30 a.m.—3 p.m.

Hell’s Belles Fencing Team Plant Sale

Campus Center, Main Level, Table 3B

The Smith College fencing team (Hell’s Belles Fencing) will be selling homegrown plants! We will have a variety of sizes and many options to choose from. This fundraiser will help cover the costs of the team, including funds for our national championships in April!

10 a.m.—noon

Home, House, History (& Halloween) in Smith Special Collections

Neilson Library, Room 306 (Special Collections Reading Room)

The Special Collections reading room on the third floor of Neilson Library will be open for Home, House, History (& Halloween), featuring materials about Smith house histories from the College Archives. Stop by and learn about the women for whom Granville, Haynes, King, Lee, and Rothman houses are named, then pick up some complimentary postcards of Smithies in action through the years.

noon—1 p.m.

Campus Life Staff Meet & Greet

Campus Center, Room 102

Meet Smith staff members who support students’ campus life experience, including the dean of the college, the dean of students, and representatives from the Office of Student Affairs.

noon—4 p.m.

OSE Popcorn Friday

Campus Center, Room 106

Join the Office of Student Engagement (OSE) for this weekly tradition in the Campus Center, where you can meet staff and pick up popcorn and mix in your favorite treats.

12:15—1:10 p.m.

Soup, Salad & Soul

Helen Hills Hills Chapel, Bodman Lounge

Come get cozy and enjoy a hot, delicious vegetarian soup made by student cooks while taking part in reflective, student-led discussions on spirituality and life! Students (and their parents) of all religious, spiritual, and nonreligious/nonspiritual backgrounds are welcome. Bodman Lounge is in the basement of the Helen Hills Hills Chapel and is accessible via elevator from the rear of the building. For details about food and for answers to other general accessibility questions, email Kim Alston at kalston@smith.edu.

12:15—1:15 p.m.

Demystifying Money: Making Money Decisions

Conway Center, Neilson Library, Room 103

In this session, we’ll talk about general approaches to making financial decisions, such as how to do a simple cost-benefit analysis. We’ll also discuss topics that are more personal, such as determining your comfort level with investment risks. Within this general framework, we’ll talk about conscious spending, insurance, and how to determine when buying quality will save money in the long term.

Lunch is provided; space is limited to 40 people. Signing up via the Smith Social Network is strongly encouraged.

12:30—2:30 p.m.

Jummah Prayer

Hampshire Mosque, Hadley

The Center for Religious and Spiritual Life invites students to join us for Jummah at the Hampshire Mosque in Hadley. The group will meet in front of the Helen Hills Hills Chapel at 12:25 p.m. The van will leave campus by 12:30 p.m. and return to campus no later than 2:30 p.m. Remember to bring a prayer rug and complete your ablution beforehand. There are extra prayer rugs in the Blue Room at the chapel if you need one! To RSVP, email crsl@smith.edu. All are welcome! Transportation will be provided for Smith students. Family members are welcome to attend but will need to provide their own transportation.

1–2 p.m.

Supporting and Advocating for Your Student
Campus Center, Room 205

Residence Life Director Hannah Durrant will lead a discussion on how to help your student when they are having a difficult time. It might be a roommate issue, not feeling connected on campus, or feeling overwhelmed by deadlines. Hannah will share strategies for how best to support your student and answer questions from families.

1–3 p.m.

Global Medical Brigades Family Weekend
Fundraiser
Chapin Lawn

The Smith College chapter of Global Medical Brigades invites you to a fall carnival-themed fundraiser featuring games and treats.

1–4:45 p.m.

Home, House, History (& Halloween) in Smith
Special Collections

Neilson Library, Room 306 (Special Collections Reading Room)

The Special Collections reading room on the third floor of Neilson Library will be open for Home, House, History (& Halloween), featuring materials about Smith house histories from the College Archives. Stop by and learn about the women for whom Granville, Haynes, King, Lee, and Rothman houses are named, then pick up some complimentary postcards of Smithies in action through the years.

2–2:30 p.m.

Ghosts, Vampires, and Skeletons: A
Halloween-Themed Tour of the Wonderfully
Weird Botanical World

McConnell Hall, Room 103

Ghost orchids? Vampire plants that drink the blood of their neighbors? This Halloween-themed talk invites you on a botanic tour of the delightful, strange, and stunningly beautiful stories that are hiding in plain sight. And yes, we will be talking about (and eating) chocolate!

3–4 p.m.

The Family Weekend “Tea”–Brief
Campus Center, Room 103/104

Come by the hospitality suite to chat with current students about their experience at Smith and create your own fall-themed tea bags to use during afternoon tea.

3–5 p.m.

Bookmark-Making Workshop With Smith College Libraries

Neilson Library, Klingenstein Browsing
Room (102)

The Smith College Libraries advance teaching, learning, research, and discovery for the Smith community by providing state-of-the-art resources and services. Join the libraries’ staff to make bookmarks together and learn more about what the libraries do to support students’ education.

4–5 p.m.

Halloween-Themed Afternoon Tea in Houses Various Locations

Families are welcome to join afternoon tea gatherings in their student’s house. Note: Families must be accompanied by their student whenever they are in student residences.

4:30–6:30 p.m.

Halloween Pop-Up With STEAM Team
Wright Hall, Room 013

Join the STEAM Outreach Team—a group of Smith undergraduates interested in increasing access to science, technology, engineering, art, and math at Smith and nearby communities—and the Jandon Center for Community Engagement for snacks, crafting, and a chance to see some friendly faces from the center. Learn about STEM-and-art opportunities, both at Smith and in the local community, and make a fun art piece to take home with you.

5:30–8 p.m.

Shabbat Services and Dinner with SCJC
Helen Hills Chapel, Bodman Lounge

Join the Smith College Jewish Community (SCJC) for Shabbat services led by students, followed by a Kosher vegetarian meal cooked by student cooks at 6:30 p.m. Feel free to come to both or either! All are welcome. Please email scjc@smith.edu with any dietary needs.

7:30–9:30 p.m.

Smith Theatre Fall Production: Eurydice
Mendenhall Center, Hallie Flanagan Theatre

Written by Sarah Ruhl; Directed by Tara Franklin

In Eurydice, Sarah Ruhl reimagines the classic myth of Orpheus through the eyes of its heroine. Dying too young on her wedding day, Eurydice must journey to the underworld, where she reunites with her father and struggles to remember her lost love. With contemporary characters, ingenious plot twists, and breathtaking visual effects, the play is a fresh look at a timeless love story.

Tickets available at SmithArts.Ludus.com. Free for Smith students by emailing boxoffice@smith.edu.

8:30–9:30 p.m.

Stargazing
McConnell Hall, Rooftop Observatory

The astronomy department will hold a stargazing open house on the McConnell roof. Come see Saturn, Jupiter, galaxies, nebulae, stars, and star clusters. All are welcome! Please dress warmly. This event will be canceled in the event of heavy cloud cover. For further information or to check on weather conditions, email Meg Thacher at mthacher@smith.edu.

10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Center for the Environment, Ecological Design, and Sustainability (CEEDS) Annual Apple Cider Pressing

Davis Meadow

Experience a family-friendly and tasty New England tradition! Help us press fresh, locally grown apples

Saturday, November 1

8:30 a.m.–5 p.m.

The Big One Fencing Tournament

Indoor Track and Tennis Facility

The Big One is the largest intercollegiate fencing event in New England and draws hundreds of fencers from across New England every year. Smith is lucky to into cider and then enjoy a cup with a Hadley-made cider doughnut. We'll also have heirloom apple tasting to help provide a sense of the amazing diversity and history of this fascinating fruit. And did we mention we'll have food trucks? Stop by and get some lunch from Crazy Arepas, Thai Chili, or Holyoke Hummus!

10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Harvest of Hope—Local Food Access Fundraiser

Campus Center, Main Level

Come and enjoy some homemade fall treats and trinkets and send your student a fall-themed care package from the Community Service Organization and the Food Rescue Network. All proceeds support reducing food waste at Smith and feeding the Northampton community!

10 a.m.–2 p.m.

ParKit: Pedaling Parks to People

Davis Meadow

The ParKit—a park-making kit—makes small temporary parks mobile. Designed by Smith College Landscape Studies students to be ridden around a city and quickly assembled, a bike pulls a trailer holding the necessary components for constructing a “parklet,” making previously unused spaces more inviting. Mobile in nature, our vision is to reach out to communities who are less likely to have the time, resources, or political leverage to engage in community design. ParKit team members design and manufacture parts for the park in the many Smith College spaces for making. They learn about design, materials, and prototyping by creating and re-creating components for the ParKit. Stop by and see what we've made.

10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Planting Bulbs in Capen Garden

Capen Garden, Conway Gazebo

Drop by to help with this annual Smith tradition—planting upward of 2,000 tulips in the beds surrounding the Jill Ker Conway Gazebo in Capen Garden. Tools, gloves, cider, and doughnuts will be on hand!

11 a.m.–noon

Building Futures: A Discussion With the Wurtele Center for Leadership and the Lazarus Center for Career Development

Kathleen McCartney Hall, Workshop Room

Join Wurtele Center Director Erin Cohn '00 and Lazarus Center Dean of Career Development Faith McClellan for a conversation about how we work with Smith students to explore their leadership and craft a sense of purpose for their work and future endeavors. As the Wurtele and Lazarus centers have just co-located in Kathleen McCartney Hall, this is an opportune moment for us to engage in broad community dialogue about what it means to live and lead well, and what capacities students need to build for the rapidly changing future of work.

11 a.m.–1 p.m.

OSE Fall Fest

Chapin Lawn (Rain Location: Campus Center, Garden Level)

Celebrate Family Weekend with fall fun at the Office of Student Engagement's Fall Fest! Enjoy creative fun with a caricature artist capturing your family's silly side, face painting, and pumpkin painting. It's the perfect way to make memories, share laughs, and soak up the fall spirit together!

11 a.m.–1 p.m.

Smith Rugby vs. Yale Rugby

Lower Athletic (Equestrian) Fields

Smith Rugby will play Yale Rugby as one of the last regular season games for this fall season. Previous knowledge of rugby is not required to enjoy this exciting and growing sport. Please come out and support Smith!

11 a.m.–2 p.m.

DTI is 10!

Capen Annex & Davis Meadow

The Design Thinking Initiative (DTI) is celebrating its 10th anniversary in 2025-26. Join us for a birthday party! We're celebrating from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. with creative activities, including a workshop led by Laura Lilienkamp '18 (former prototyping studio manager) to turn upcycled feed bags into custom reusable totes. Plus, you can help us build a collective timeline and imagine the future of DTI. Then at 1 p.m., we'll cut cake and raise a toast while sharing stories of DTI.

11 a.m.–5 p.m.

Official Smith Ring Sales

Campus Center, Main Level, Table 1

The Smith ring, designed by students, is a symbol of the continuous link with classmates, friends, and the college. The ring also evokes special and shared memories of Smith days. Sponsored by Smith's Alumnae Association, the ring is reserved exclusively for sophomores, juniors, seniors, and Ada Comstock Scholars in good standing. The design remains unchanged—a tangible connection to the past and the future.

11:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

Ada Bake Sale

Campus Center Steps

The Ada Comstock Scholars Program offers a path for students of nontraditional age to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree at Smith College. The Ada cabinet and Ada coordinator are fundraising to support anniversary celebrations, upcoming events, and merchandise for the class. Drop by for a sweet treat and to learn more about how this innovative program supports nontraditional-age students. Cash is preferred, but Venmo will also be accepted.

noon–2 p.m.

Class of 2028 Photoshoot

Grécourt Gate (in front of College Hall)

Celebrate declaring your major by getting your “I Declared” photo taken at the Grécourt Gates. Bring your friends and family and enjoy a treat with the class of 2028.

noon–3 p.m.

BSA Soul Food Lunch Box

Davis Ballroom

The Black Students' Alliance (BSA) is excited to invite students and their families to our annual Soul Food Lunch Box! Come experience the warmth of the BSA as we laugh, bond, and celebrate the unique flavors and unity that make our community special.

We have exciting games planned to spark some friendly competition and add to the fun! To help us prepare for your arrival, please have students RSVP for their families using the form provided in the BSA Newsletter from October 4 to October 7. Feel free to reach out with any questions at bsa@smith.edu. While everyone in the Smith community is welcome, this event is intended for Black students and their families.

SSFFS Library, King House Basement

A repository for contemporary and classic science fiction and fantasy novels, comics, and magazines, the SSFFS Library has highlighted female and queer stories within these traditionally male-dominated genres since 1987. Come join us for a tour of our library and discover the secret history of nerds at Smith! Tickets will be sold at the door.

1–4:45 p.m.

Home, House, History (& Halloween) in Smith Special Collections

Neilson Library, Room 306 (Special Collections Reading Room)

The Special Collections reading room on the third floor of Neilson Library will be open for Home, House, History (& Halloween), featuring materials about Smith house histories from the College Archives. Stop by and learn about the women for whom Granville, Haynes, King, Lee, and Rothman houses are named, then pick up some complimentary postcards of Smithies in action through the years.

2–3 p.m.

Yearbook Sales and Fundraising

Campus Center, Main Level, Table 3A

Support the Madeleine Yearbook and take home a piece of your Smith history by purchasing past yearbooks! We invite families to look through recent yearbooks and purchase previous editions to take home. We will answer questions about the 2026 yearbook and how seniors can receive their free copy.

2–4 p.m.

LASO Family Weekend

Campus Center, Rooms 204 and 205

Join the Latin American Student Organization (LASO) in celebrating Family Weekend. We will have fun games like loteria and dominoes, and the winners will receive a small prize. We will also play our favorite Latin hits and provide food and drinks for the first 40 people. Come spend quality time with LASO and learn how we support Latine/x Smithies throughout the year.

3–4 p.m.

“Come Home to Smith” With President Sarah Willie-LeBreton

Sage Hall, Sweeney Auditorium

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Smith College is committed to maintaining a diverse community in an atmosphere of mutual respect and appreciation of differences. Smith College does not discriminate in its educational and employment policies on the bases of race, color, creed, religion, national/ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, genetic information, age, disability, or service in the military or other uniformed services. Smith’s admission policies and practices are guided by the same principle, concerning applicants to the undergraduate program who identify as women, and all applicants to the graduate programs.
