

SMITH COLLEGE.

Orientation
FOR NEW STUDENTS

2026

Moodle

Some optional preorientation sessions take place remotely prior to your arrival, so links for these will be available through Smith's learning platform Moodle. On your August 4 Talk Tuesday you will receive an email through Moodle from First-Year Class Dean Jennifer Joyce, which will grant you access to the Academic Matters course. Please note that you will not be able to access the Moodle page until August 4.

Monday, August 17– Friday, August 21

Individual Advising Meetings

(Required one-on-one Zoom meeting with your liberal arts adviser)

All new students are assigned a liberal arts adviser (LAA)—a faculty member who will help you navigate academics at Smith and develop plans for pursuing your interests through Smith's open liberal arts curriculum.

You will meet with your LAA for your individual advising meeting on Zoom between August 17 and August 21 (before you arrive on campus). At this meeting, you and your adviser will begin the exciting conversation about your academic journey through Smith. Your LAA will be in touch with you in the first half of August to schedule this one-on-one meeting.

As noted later in this schedule, you will meet with your adviser again in a group setting during Orientation on Friday, September 4, from 1:45 to 2:45 p.m. Note that online course registration happens right after, from 3 to 4 p.m.

Important: You will only be able to register if you have met with your LAA individually.

Tuesday, September 1

Note: Events scheduled prior to September 3 are virtual. You may not arrive on campus before September 3 unless otherwise instructed.

9–10 a.m. OR 8–9 p.m.

Health Professions Advising Program Information Session

Online Zoom link can be found in your academic Moodle course (available August 4)

Preparation for a career in the health professions is part of a larger plan that includes completing prerequisite coursework, relevant clinical experiences, and community service activities. Join this session to get help with selecting your first classes, learn more about planning your activities, and find the support and resources our program offers.

(Choose one health advising session or the other; no need to attend both.)

(Optional session for those interested.)

10–11 a.m.

Workday, Moodle, and Technology Services for Students

Online Zoom link can be found in your academic Moodle course (available August 4)

Join the Information Technology Services (ITS) team to get familiar with the systems and resources you'll use for course registration, classes, studying, and more. Learn about many ITS services and how to get tech support.

(Optional session for those interested.)

2–3 p.m.

Music Department Information Session

Online Zoom link can be found in your academic Moodle course (available Aug. 4)

Everything you need to know or want to ask about music at Smith will be covered in this session. Learn about courses, lessons, auditions for ensembles, chamber music, and more.

(Optional session for those interested.)

Thursday, September 3

MOVE-IN DAY

8–10:30 a.m.

Central Check-In

Indoor Track & Tennis Facility

All students must visit Central Check-In (CCI) prior to arriving at their house to move in. There, you will check in with the registrar, receive an information packet with your student ID (OneCard), complete forms as necessary, and receive your room key.* You and your family will be able to meet representatives from offices on campus and community partners who offer valuable services to students.

Even students whose rooms do not require a physical key must check in at CCI.*

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

10:30–11:30 a.m.

Settle In

Take this time to move into your room, meet your roommate or housemates, and start unpacking the essentials. Tips:

- Students who mailed their belongings can retrieve them at Mail Services, located on the lower level of the Julia McWilliams Child '34 Campus Center.
- Handcarts are available to borrow (in limited quantities) from Mail Services and Clark Hall.

- Student volunteers in houses may assist with moving according to their own abilities. You should always be prepared to move your items into your house by yourself or with the help of your family/guests.

11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Lunch for All New Students and Their Families

Open Dining Rooms

New students and their families are invited to enjoy lunch, served buffet style, at all open dining rooms. Come anytime during the lunch hour.

Please refer to the end of this program for a link to the dining hall menus.

12:30–1:30 p.m.

President's Assembly

John M. Greene Hall

All entering students and their families are invited to a community address by President Sarah Willie-LeBreton.

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

1:30–2 p.m.

Refreshments

Chapin Lawn (Rain Location: Campus Center, First Floor)

Following the President's Assembly, light refreshments will be served until 2 p.m., when parents and students will head to their respective sessions.

2–2:45 p.m.

Playfair

Chapin Lawn (Rain Location: Scott Gym)

After refreshments, students will stay out on the lawn for Playfair. Jump-start friendships, boost team spirit, and build confidence by playing a series of fun games. This experience is for students only. Parents and families are asked to begin the Family Orientation sessions at this time.

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

Family Orientation—Introduction

2:30–3:30 p.m.

Weinstein Auditorium, Wright Hall

Get to know all the ways Smith staff members work to support your student throughout their time at Smith. This presentation will introduce you to both academic and campus life staff, who will lead a lively discussion on what to expect in your student's first year at Smith and give an overview of the rest of the Family Orientation activities.

This session is for families only. Students are expected to attend Playfair followed by their class dean's welcome session.

3–4:30 p.m.

Welcome From the Dean of the First-Year Class

John M. Greene Hall

First-Year Class Dean Jennifer Joyce will welcome the class of 2030 to the Smith College community. This address is critical to your success at Smith. Dean Joyce will teach you how to approach your first year academically and how the class dean and others will support you.

This meeting is for students only.

Attendance at this event is required for first-year students.

3–4:30 p.m.

Class Dean's Welcome for Transfer Students, Ada Comstock Scholars, and Visiting and Exchange Students

Ford Hall, Room 240

Class Dean Andrea Rossi-Reder and Associate Registrar Karen Sise welcome new transfers, Adas, and visiting and exchange students into the Smith community and share important academic information. The meeting will conclude with the official Ada Comstock Scholars class photo.

This meeting is for students only.

Attendance at this event is required for transfer, visiting, and exchange students and Ada Comstock Scholars.

3:30–6 p.m.

Family Orientation—Choice Sessions Various Locations

While students are getting filled in on the essentials of campus and academic life, families can partake in walking tours or one of several sessions tailored to their curiosities or concerns. For a full list of events and sessions open to families, please see the Family Orientation schedule on the Parents & Families webpage or pick up a schedule at Central Check-In in the Indoor Track & Tennis Facility.

These sessions are for families only. Students are expected to attend the first-year class dean's welcome session at this time.

4:30–5:30 p.m.

Team Time

Various locations shared by OLs via email

Meet with all members of your team and your orientation leaders (OLs) for the first time. Learn about the orientation team experience, get acquainted with ongoing Orientation activities, and work together to create something special to showcase your team spirit.

5–6 p.m.

Accessibility and Accommodations

Seelye Hall, Room 106

Staff from the Accessibility Resource Center (ARC) will explain to students and families how the ARC supports equal access and participation for students with disabilities and/or access needs in all programs and activities at Smith. This session will cover:

- disability services, accommodations, and documentation
- academic requirements and support services
- students' rights and responsibilities

(Optional session for those interested. Parents and families are welcome.)

6 p.m.

This concludes the programming for parents and families.

6–7 p.m.

Dinner*

Open Dining Rooms

Open hours for dining halls vary by location. Please refer to the end of this schedule for a link to the most up-to-date listing of open hours.

For residential meal-plan students only. Students wishing to dine with families should plan to eat downtown at one of our local restaurants.*

5:30–7 p.m.

Transfer Students and Ada Comstock Scholars STEM Session

Burton Hall, Room 209

Entering transfer students and Ada Comstock Scholars considering a STEM major can join this session for information tailored to their experience. Hear from faculty representatives from several STEM departments for information on course selection, finding research positions, and making sure you feel prepared for and supported in your studies at Smith. Food will be provided.

This session is intended for transfer students and Ada Comstock Scholars only.

8–9 p.m.

Nuts and Bolts of Living on Campus*

House Living Rooms

Gather with your fellow housemates for this multifaceted information session. Various topics will be covered by the corresponding house representatives:

- Campus Life Resources: Heads of New Students (HONS)
- Academic Resources and Policies: Student Academic Advisers (SAAs)
- House Life: House Community Adviser(s) (HCAs) and the House President (HP)

Students who do not live in on-campus housing will not attend this meeting.*

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

8–9 a.m.

Meet Up with Your SAAs

Your House Living Room

Check in with your student academic advisers (SAAs) before the Conversations With Faculty event to hear how to maximize your experience when meeting faculty, what to expect with group advising, and how to plan for registration. SAAs will walk with you to your registration session.

9–10 a.m.

Getting Ready for Registration

John M. Greene Hall

Humanities and First Years' Engagement Librarian Xochitl Quiroz will open with a brief introduction to the Smith College Libraries. Then, Associate Registrar Karen Sise, along with the SAAs, will provide information about the registration process and add/drop to help prepare for registration later in the day. General information about course registration is on the registrar's webpage.

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

10–11:30 a.m.

Conversations With Faculty

Indoor Track & Tennis Facility

Conversations is an event during which faculty members from all departments and programs gather in one place to speak with students about course content and selection. Faculty members will be grouped around signs indicating their department, and students are encouraged to speak with faculty from any area of study that piques their interest.

Treat yourself to some light refreshments while you mingle! Not sure what to say? Here are some ideas:

- Are there classes I need to take now in order to major in this subject?
- What course should I take to see if this area of study is a good fit for me?
- What is the focus of your research in your field?
- What practical experiences are there for students who major in this subject?
- How can I study this subject along with another I am interested in?

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

11:30–12:30 p.m.

Lunch*

Open Dining Rooms

Open hours for dining halls vary by location. Please refer to the end of this schedule for a link to the most up-to-date listing of open hours.

will be vital to your success in courses across all areas of study. Bring your book/e-book and be ready to share your thoughts.

Smith Reads Discussions classroom locations will be shared directly with students via email. If you are unsure about your discussion location, reach out to your OLs or email orientation@smith.edu.*

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

1:45–2:45 p.m.

Group Advising Meetings

Various Locations Shared by Advisers

LAA's will hold a group meeting with their liberal arts advisees. At this meeting, you will have the chance to meet your LAA's other advisees and solidify your plans for course registration. Be sure to confirm with your adviser that your registration hold has been lifted so that you will be able to register.

Your LAA will communicate the location of this meeting to you directly during your preorientation individual advising meeting and in a follow-up email afterward. If you don't receive information about your meeting location by 3 p.m. on Tuesday, September 1, please email your adviser.

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

3–4 p.m.

Course Registration

Online—Students will register for courses through Workday

Registration will open in Workday at this time. Your SAAs will be waiting in your house living room if you have questions or need support during registration.

While you might be feeling apprehensive about your first registration process, you should know that when we surveyed new students, about 70% of respondents reported feeling better right after finishing registration. For students who still felt stressed, reaching out to their adviser or SAA helped to lessen the feeling.

Resource Fair

Indoor Track & Tennis Facility

If you're wondering how to get help with your first college-level essay, start volunteering, become a more confident public speaker, or connect with students who share your interests, this is the place to be! The Resource Fair will introduce you to over 30 centers and departments at Smith that will support your academic and extracurricular pursuits. Come with questions at the ready!

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

1:30–2:45 p.m.

Living in Campus Community

John M. Greene Hall

How does Smith help students navigate the exciting, rewarding, and sometimes challenging relationships that form when bringing together so many new students? The Office for Equity and Inclusion (OEI) thinks about this question every day. At this event, meet staff from OEI, the Office for Civil Rights Compliance and Title IX, and the Leaders for Equity-Centered and Action-Based Design (LEAD) program who will help you understand how to nurture these connections.

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.

ARC and Dis-Organizing Workshop

Seelye Hall, Room 106

Have you registered with the Accessibility Resource Center (ARC)? Every year, students with disabilities come to Smith from neighboring towns, from across the nation, and from around the globe. The ARC and Dis-Organizing—a student group dedicated to creating social change—are both deeply committed to fostering community and connections among students with disabilities through self-knowledge, understanding, peer support, mentoring, and empowerment. An overview of the ARC and available resources will be followed by a session with Dis-Organizing. All are welcome.

Drag Bingo

Two Location Options

Not your grandma's bingo! Drag Bingo is a louder, rowdier, and spicier version of an old favorite. Come with your teammates or on your own to enjoy a fabulous show, make friends, and maybe even win a prize!

Due to the popularity of this event, we are offering it in two locations to accommodate a higher capacity. Students interested in playing bingo should attend at just one of these locations:

Location 1: Davis Ballroom

Location 2: Campus Center Carroll Room

8:30–10:30 p.m.

Spirits of Smith Ghost Tours

Meet Under Seelye Lawn Tent*

A tour group leaves every 30 minutes between 8:30 and 10 p.m.

Your OLs have extensively trained in the art of supernatural storytelling. Join them on a tour of Smith—which by some accounts is the most haunted college campus in America—to hear spine-tingling tales of the specters of Smith's past. Get in the spirit by wearing your scary best (if you'd like) and enjoy a silly survey of Smith's spookiest spaces.

Mindful Morning

Various Locations

Meditation

Chapel Sanctuary

Come together for contemplative sharing, guided meditation, and techniques to build strength and calmness.

Self-Defense: Confidence in Motion

Scott Gym

Learning to defend yourself isn't just about muscles—it's about mindset, presence, and voice. In this class, you'll discover how your arms, legs, and words work together to keep you safe. By the end, uncertainty will give way to confidence, and you'll know exactly how much power you really have.

Yoga

Davis Ballroom

Get introduced to the practice of yoga. You'll learn simple physical postures and sequences to help keep your body relaxed and strong, as well as breathing techniques to relieve stress and improve concentration. Yoga mats are available for participants in limited quantities.

Zumba*

Chapin Lawn

Love Latin music? Want to pick up some moves? Join us for a fun Zumba session! We'll groove to Latin rhythms, embrace our missteps, and most importantly, share laughter and fun—no experience necessary!

This event will be canceled if there is inclement weather.*

11 a.m.–noon

Office for Civil Rights Compliance and Title IX
Weinstein Auditorium

Meet the staff of the Office for Civil Rights Compliance and Title IX and hear more about how they can help students who experience discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or other concerning conduct. Learn about the resources that Smith provides and how to guide friends and peers to those resources if they need help.

12:15–1:30 p.m.

Lawn Games*

Seelye Lawn

Channel the excitement and nerves from the week into some fun in the sun! Join your OLs on the lawn for low-stakes lawn games.

This event will be canceled in the event of inclement weather.*

12:15–1:15 p.m.

Pet-a-Pet Day

Looking to get a little crafty? Your talented OLs will walk you through a craft of your choice. Pick from a number of options for custom dorm decor and college essentials.

3:30–4:30 p.m.

Health & Wellness During Your First Year

John M. Greene Hall

Even if you don't need help with health, wellness, or accessibility needs right now, there is still a lot to learn about how Smith will support you no matter what comes your way. For example, did you know that the Schacht Center for Health and Wellness provides FREE essential medical and mental health care to all Smith students? This session brings together staff from the Schacht Center to give you an overview of the many kinds of support available to you at Smith. Attendees could win a prize and will have the opportunity to meet some of the stars of the SMART video!

Attendance at this event is required for all new students.
