

HISTORY MAJOR

NAME:

DATE:

For all classes, please list course # and title. For classes you plan to take, please note projected semester.

The major is comprised of 11 four-credit courses (6 which should be taken at Smith): courses should either have the HST prefix or be cross-listed with History (see the catalog under the History Department for cross-listed courses, which do not have the HST prefix but count as HST courses). Please note that when a course has the Latin Honors designation of {H} it does not mean that it counts toward the History major.

History courses that are taken at other colleges or during study away need to be approved by your advisor in order for them to count toward the major. You are permitted TWO courses in your field of concentration that are not HST or cross-listed, but historically oriented at the 200-level or above in another discipline. These too need to be approved by your advisor.

 Beginning with the class of 2021, AP courses no longer count toward the major and one of your 11 courses must be HST 150 The Historians' Craft. No more than 3 courses taken at the 100-level can count toward the major

1. 5 courses in a FIELD OF CONCENTRATION, incl. one seminar:

Concentration (can be geographic, chronological, methodological, or thematic):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
5. Seminar:

2. 6 additional courses -- four must be in two fields distinct from concentration

Four courses that are distinct from concentration:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Two additional courses (can be within or outside your concentration)

- 5.
- 6.

GEOGRAPHICAL BREADTH: Among the 11 courses counting towards the major, there must be at least one course each in three of the following geographical regions (Africa, East and Central Asia, Europe, Latin America, Middle East and South Asia, North America).

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.