

PLANNING YOUR STUDENT RECITAL

Plan ahead! If you know you'd like to give a recital later in the year, start looking at dates as soon as possible. Weekends fill up fast. The more prepared you are in the time leading up to the performance, the more pleasant the whole experience will be. It is imperative that you take responsibility for the steps below.

IMPORTANT! To avoid unhappy surprises, make sure your teacher is aware of all resources and performers you plan to use in your recital so that approval, if needed, can be obtained from the Department Chair.

NEED TO KNOW INFORMATION

- ✓ Event name
- ✓ Start and end time
- ✓ Reception in Green Room?
 - ✓ What time?
- ✓ Dept. instruments used that need to be moved (timpani etc.)
- ✓ How many chairs and stands?
- ✓ Using any accompaniment?
- ✓ Using a piano?
 - ✓ Which piano?
- ✓ Would you like your recital recorded (audio/video)?

If Jerry Noble, cnoble@smith.edu, is your accompanist, ask him which piano he'd like to use.

If you would like to have your recital recorded, please ask at the Music Office for information about your options.

AT LEAST 6 WEEKS BEFORE YOUR RECITAL, SECURE A DATE

1. Student and teacher consult the internal calendar for available dates at <http://25livepub.collegenet.com/calendars/smith-college-music-department> .
2. Student, with teacher, submits detailed reservation via 25Live as soon as possible. Once submitted, a confirmation will be sent to student, teacher, and all requisite service providers.
3. Upon approval, event is automatically entered into the department calendar.

CHECKLIST

Plan your Recital with your teacher.

Find an available date with your teacher and the Scheduler.

At least 6 weeks ahead of time:

With teacher, put in a 25Live request for the date including the following information:

Event name

Start and end time

Event description- who, what Location: Earle, or Sweeney

Resources: Chairs- how many

Stands- how many
