- Items deemed of significant monetary or sentimental value by the student.
- Items that would suffer from extremes of temperature or humidity.

The following items are prohibited from storage:

- Batteries, & flammable or combustible items including: cleaning products, lighters or other solvents.

In consideration of the College providing me a locker at no charge, I agree, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to forever release Smith College from any cause of action, claims, or demands of any nature whatsoever, including without limitation, claims for negligence which I or all others on my or their behalf may now have or have in the future against Smith College for any property damage of any kind in any way related to my use of a student locker or college facilities, equipment, or services used to store my property or property in my care, custody or control, howsoever the loss is caused, whether by the negligence of Smith College or otherwise. In other words, I fully assume responsibility for all items that I store in the locker or leave in the building, and I understand that Smith College is not responsible for any loss of or damage to these items.

I understand that if I do not have personal insurance for my belongings, I should consider options other than the Sage Hall lockers.

I understand that all items must be removed by Commencement Day, and that it is my responsibility to know when Commencement Day is. All items left in Sage Hall lockers after Commencement Day may be removed and disposed of at the discretion of Smith College without further notice.
