

THE CLARICE LISPECTOR STUDENT PRIZE IN PORTUGUESE – 2018

This prize will be awarded to a graduating SPB major or minor for the best senior essay or project in Portuguese and Brazilian Studies. Submissions, one per student, may include papers, portfolios, or projects completed for courses or special studies during the last two semesters of study, excluding honors theses. Entries should indicate for which course they were originally completed. Submissions are due by noon on the first weekday of the spring semester exam period and must be delivered as a hard copy, and sent as an electronic file by e-mail, to Michelle Finley administrative assistant in Hatfield Hall. Potential applicants should contact Marguerite Harrison with any questions. The Department reserves the right to award the prize as deemed appropriate each year.

If interested in being considered for the prize, please complete the following information, attach this page to your submission, and deliver it to Michelle Finley before noon on Tuesday, May 8th. Please submit both a hard copy and an electronic copy, sent as an attachment to: mfinley@smith.edu

Your name:

Title of your project:

Course for which the project was originally completed, please include the semester when it was given and the name of the instructor:

Description of the original assignment, from the course syllabus or any other material prepared by the instructor (copy and paste if needed):