1:00-2:30 p.m.  An Introduction to Design Thinking – Zaza Kabayadondo
Capen Annex
Some first-years are both nervous and excited about working with others on projects. Some like to think through complex problems but don’t always know where to start. Some are still trying to figure out if they are creative spirits. Your first year at Smith is a time of discovery and working with empathy will help you shape it. In this session, you’ll find out about a style of creative and collaborative problem-solving called design thinking. Come early and ready for a fast-paced hands-on design challenge that puts empathy into action.

1:00-2:00 p.m.  Mathematics, Statistics, and You at Smith College – Julianna Tymoczko
Weinstein Auditorium, Wright Hall
This informational meeting will help students determine which mathematics courses are appropriate for their background and interests. Strongly recommended for all students regardless of intended major.

1:00-2:00 p.m.  Academic Strategies for Success in College

McConnell 103
The Board of Pre-health Advisers will offer a presentation and Q&A for students interested in the health professions.

2:00-3:00 p.m.  Engineering Information Session
Ford Hall 240
The Director of Engineering will offer a presentation and Q&A for students interested in the engineering major. Engineering requires certain courses to be taken during the first year and has specific limitations on advanced placement in math and science courses. Prospective engineering majors are highly encouraged to attend.

3:00-4:30 p.m.  A Brief Introduction to College Writing
Stoddard Auditorium
For some students, college writing is not so different from high school writing. For others, it is very different: they may be asked to write more papers, longer papers, and/or different kinds of papers than they have before. Do you know what makes for a good college paper? How do successful student writers go about writing strong papers? What specific characteristics most distinguish strong from fair to middling papers? Join us for a discussion of these and any other questions you have about writing papers.

7:00-8:00 p.m. Convocation
John M. Greene Hall
Students and faculty gather under one roof to signal the start of the academic year.

8:00-10:00 p.m. Smith College Convocation Kick-Off Carnival
Following Convocation everyone will be directed to the Convocation Carnival happening in front of the Campus Center and Chapin Lawn (inside the Campus Center in the event of rain). The Student Event Committee, WOZQ, SGA, Dining Services, the Dean of the College and the Division of Student Affairs have come together to plan a celebration marking the beginning of another academic year. The event will be filled with games, music and food as we celebrate our community together. Families should use discretion when making a decision to bring children; we expect more than 2000 very excited Smith undergraduates to be in attendance. (Inside the Campus Center in the event of rain.)
