For New Students

2022
Thursday, August 25

For students interested in pre-med

9–10 a.m.
Health Professions Advising Program Information Session

8–9 p.m.
Online–Zoom link can be found in your academic Moodle course.
(Choose one session or the other; no need to attend both)

Preparation for a career in the health professions is part of a larger plan that includes completing prerequisite coursework, relevant clinical experiences and community service activities. Join this session to get help with selecting your first classes, to learn more about planning your activities and to find out more about the support and resources our program offers.

Thursday, September 1

8–11 a.m.
Central Check-In and Move In for new students

Indoor Track and Tennis Facility (ITT)
All students must visit Central Check-In before going to their houses to move in. In addition to receiving your room keys and college ID card, you can connect with various campus departments and services.

11:30 a.m.–1 p.m.
Lunch for all new students and families
Please refer to the end of this program for a list of open dining rooms.
All new students and their families are invited. Lunch will be served buffet-style, so feel free to come at any point during this time.

11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.
Welcome Lunch For Incoming Adas with Ada Coordinator*

Chase House Special Dining Room

1 p.m.
President’s Welcome Assembly
John M. Greene Hall (JMG)
All entering students and their families are invited to the president’s first community address of the academic year.

2–3 p.m.
Welcome Reception
Chapin Lawn
Meet Faculty, Staff and Administrators
New students and their families are invited to an informal mixer to meet members of the faculty, administration, returning students and one another. Light refreshments will be served until 2:45 p.m., when you will want to start heading to your separate sessions.

Thursday, August 25–Wednesday, August 31

Individual Advising Appointments via Zoom (Required)
Advisers will meet for one half-hour with each student advisee via phone or Zoom from noon on Thursday to 5 p.m. on Wednesday. Students will be contacted by their liberal arts adviser earlier that week (August 22–24) to schedule their appointments within that time frame.

During this half hour, you—the advisee—should be prepared to discuss course ideas and interests, and your adviser will help you link your developing academic preferences with choices for classes. They may also offer other avenues for you to explore your interests this fall and in the coming academic year.

Departmental Placement Exams
The links to placement exams, auditions and portfolio reviews can be found on the Registrar’s Office website. Note the due dates of placement exams, as some are as early as Monday, August 15.

All links for remote sessions can be found on the Orientation Moodle courses. Please note that the both the campus life Moodle course and the academic Moodle course are now open.

* An asterisk indicates that the session is for Ada Comstock Scholars and transfer students.
