Open dining rooms
Please refer to the end of this program for a list of open dining rooms.

8:30–9 a.m. Liberal Arts Advising: How to Be an Effective Advisee
Sweeney Auditorium, Sage Hall
A Smith education has many important components. From major course work to cultural competency, you have several choices to make. Scott Bradbury, director of faculty advising and professor of classical languages and literatures, and Jane Stangl, dean of the first-year class, will lead this informational meeting to help you learn to make the most of academic advising and the open curriculum and to determine what path is best for you. Recommended for all students regardless of intended major.

9:10–10 a.m. Group Meetings With Academic Advisers
Various locations
All first-year students, transfers, visiting students, exchange students and Ada Comstock Scholars will meet with their academic advisers in the designated locations listed in the course registration materials you received at central check-in. All students are required to attend this session. This meeting is for students only.

10–11:30 a.m. Physics Fest 2017
McConnell Foyer
Play with lasers, spinning bicycle wheels, lazy magnets, and more fun demos and toys to experience the magic of physics, and chat with students and faculty in the physics department. Stop by any time and stay as long as you like.

10–11:30 a.m. A Brief Introduction to College Writing
Stoddard Auditorium
For some students, college writing is a lot like the writing they did in high school. For others, college requires more papers, longer papers and different kinds of papers. Do you know what makes a good college paper? How do successful student writers go about writing strong papers? What distinguishes strong papers from average ones? Join Peter Sapira from the Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning to discuss these and other questions about writing papers.

11–11:30 a.m. ALEKS Orientation Session
McConnell B15
ALEKS, a web-based resource for quantitative success, is a useful quantitative skills tool for students interested in math, science, engineering or prehealth. Open to all interested students.

11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m. Lunch for Residential Board-Paying Students
Open dining rooms
Please refer to the end of this program for a list of open dining rooms.

Noon–1 p.m. AEMES Orientation (by invitation only)
Chase/Duckett Special Dining Rooms A and B

1–3 p.m. An Introduction to Design Thinking
Capen Annex
Your first year at Smith is a time of discovery and experimentation, but how should you begin? Empathy is the starting point for a style of creative and collaborative problem-solving called design thinking. Come early and be ready for a fast-paced hands-on design challenge, led by Zaza Kabayadondo, director of Smith’s Design Thinking Initiative, that puts empathy into action in ways that can help others or inspire change. The design challenge will be an opportunity to get a head start on Quest: The Breakfast Edition, a First-Year Experience scavenger hunt.

1–2 p.m. Mathematics, Statistics and You
Weinstein Auditorium, Wright Hall
Join Julianna Tymoczko, associate professor of mathematics and statistics, for this informational meeting to help you determine which mathematics courses best address your background and interests. Strongly recommended for all students regardless of intended major.

1–2 p.m. Academic Strategies for Success in College
Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning, Seelye Hall
Reinforce your learning habits and strengthen your study skills. Learn about the services offered by the Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning.

Smith-To-Do
Smith-To-Do will be facilitating fun activities in the Campus Center!
- Friday, September 1, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.
- Monday, September 4, noon–2 p.m.
- Tuesday, September 5, 10 a.m.–noon.
2–3 p.m. Academic Strategies for Success in College
Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning, Seelye Hall
Reinforce your learning habits and strengthen your study skills. Learn about the services offered by the Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning.

2–3 p.m. Health Professions Information Session
McConnell 103
The Board of Prehealth Advisers will offer a presentation and Q&A for students interested in the health professions.

2–3 p.m. Engineering Information Session
Ford Hall 240
Andrew Guswa, director of the Picker Engineering Program and professor of engineering, will offer a presentation and Q&A for students interested in the engineering major. Engineering requires certain courses to be taken during the first year and has specific limitations on advanced placement in math and science courses. Prospective engineering majors are highly encouraged to attend.

3–4:30 p.m. A Brief Introduction to College Writing
Stoddard Auditorium
For some students, college writing is a lot like the writing they did in high school. For others, college requires more papers, longer papers and different kinds of papers. Do you know what makes a good college paper? How do successful student writers go about writing strong papers? What distinguishes strong papers from average ones? Join Peter Sapira from the Jacobson Center for Writing, Teaching and Learning for a discussion of these and any of your other questions about writing papers.

3–4:30 p.m. Design Thinking
Capen Annex
This scavenger hunt takes new Smithies on a journey of discovery across the campus. Students can pick up an instruction packet and materials at Capen Annex. Students must work in teams of two to five to complete the quest. Along the way, teams will receive clues, complete tasks and learn about campus resources for student-led projects. All activities must be concluded by 9 a.m. on Friday, September 8. The top two teams will receive exciting prizes, to be announced at the Conway Center Ice Cream Social.

4:30–5:30 p.m. Conversations With Faculty
Indoor Track and Tennis Facility (ITT)
Join faculty members from each department and program for informal discussions regarding course content and selection. Bring your questions! Recommended for all students regardless of intended major.

5:30–7 p.m. Dinner for Residential Board-Paying Students
Open dining rooms
Please refer to the end of this program for a list of open dining rooms.

7–8 p.m. Summer Reading Group Discussions
House living rooms
The summer reading assignment, The Book of Unknown Americans: A Novel, by Cristina Henríquez, is the first opportunity for Smith students, faculty and staff to engage with each other as an intellectual, scholarly community. Members of the faculty and staff will host discussions about the summer reading selection. All students are expected to attend this session.

8:30–10:30 p.m. Movie Night: Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2
Weinstein Auditorium
After saving the planet Xandar, the Guardians of the Galaxy are recognized as heroes. Now the team must help their leader Star-Lord uncover the truth behind his heritage—and find that they are up against a devastating new menace who is out to rule the universe! Join us for this 2016 blockbuster.

Wednesday, September 6

2:30—4 p.m. Online Registration
Seeley 212
Seeley 212 is reserved for students who need computer access.

2:30 p.m. First-Year Experience Registration
Guidebook App
The First-Year Experience is a six-week program to help you ease into life at Smith. It offers a variety of workshops on the wide array of services and activities that are available to you as a student. To register, download the Guidebook App at guidebook.com/app/smith. Once you have the app on your smartphone or computer, click “Schedules” on the left side of your screen. Then select “First-Year Experience.” In that schedule, you’ll find a list of events organized by date. To add an event to your schedule, you must “check in.” Many events limit the number of students who can attend, so the process of checking in serves as your registration to each event. If you have any questions, please contact studentaffairs@smith.edu.

4—5 p.m. Dining Shifts Work-Study Information Meeting
Weinstein Auditorium, Wright Hall
All first-year students who are on work-study must attend this meeting to learn how to sign up for dining hall shifts.

5—7 p.m. Dining Services Shift Sign-Up
Online sign-up

5:30—7 p.m. Celebration Picnic Barbecue
Two locations: Davis Lawn and Quad Lawn
Please join other residents of your house and eat together on Davis Lawn or the Quad Lawn as a house community.

7—8 p.m. Convocation
John M. Greene Hall
Students and faculty gather under one roof to signal the start of the academic year.

8—10 p.m. Smith College Convocation Kick-Off Carnival
Following Convocation, celebrate the beginning of another academic year with games, music and food. The Student Event Committee (SEC), WOZQ, SGA, Dining Services, the dean of the college and the Office of Student Affairs have planned this lively event. Families should use discretion when deciding whether to bring children; more than 2,000 very excited Smith undergraduates are expected to attend. (Rain location: Campus Center)

Thursday, September 7

7:30—9 a.m. Breakfast for Residential Board-Paying Students
Open dining rooms
Please refer to the end of this program for a list of open dining rooms.
