The Department of Spanish and Portuguese cordially invites you to the Presentation of the Honors Thesis in Portuguese and Brazilian Studies

“O(s) Livro(s) de Arístides Fernández: Oito Contos e Um Comentário”

by

Ingrid Brioso-Rieumont (AC ’15)

Monday, April 20, 2015
12:15 p.m., Hatfield Hall 205

(Lunch Provided)

Centered on eight short stories that she translated from Spanish into Portuguese, Ingrid’s thesis introduces the Cuban writer and avant-garde painter, Arístides Fernández (1904-1934), explores resonances between his work and Brazilian literature and art, and reflects upon the challenges of translating his short stories. Her presentation will be in English with some readings in Spanish and Portuguese.
